

Eligibility, Terms and Conditions for ALL Residencies Michael King Writers Centre 2023

All applicants must read, understand and accept the Application Criteria of the MKWC Residencies before proceeding with an application and to be eligible for a fellowship.

Eligibility for ALL Residencies

The following criteria apply:

- Applicants must have New Zealand citizenship or permanent residency.
- Applicants can apply for a specific writing project in fiction or non-fiction. This includes fiction and creative nonfiction (for adults or for children/YA), biography, history, art history, poetry, politics, science writing and dramatists. Scripts for film, television or radio are not eligible. Tertiary students working towards the completion of a tertiary qualification and university academics or employees whose project is part of their usual employment are not eligible.

Terms and Conditions for ALL Residencies

In accepting the residency, the selected writer agrees to the following terms and conditions:

- The decision of the selection panel will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
- The appointed writer will reside in Auckland at the Michael King Writers Centre for the term of the residency. Writers who usually live in Auckland are eligible to apply, however the appointed writer is expected to reside at the centre for the majority of the residency.
- If the appointed writer is in regular employment, he or she is expected to arrange to be on leave for the duration of the residency.
- The writer accepts that the residency may be promoted by MKWC and its funding agencies in publications and media activities.
- The writer agrees to take part in an event or activity if required, whilst holding the residency.
- Within four (4) weeks of the completion of the residency, the writer agrees to provide a written evaluation of the residency to the Michael King Writers Centre.
